Dear Customer:

This morning, we were forced to make the difficult decision to close down our business.

We realize this is very late notice as orders would be due in next week, but we have no choice for several reasons.

At this time, we are unable to procure the resources to keep our employees working. And, at 3 weeks into our season, if we were to get the volume we need, our staff would not be able to recover the time lost in order to fulfill our obligation to you.

We are very sorry to inform you of this decision. It has been devastating for our loyal employees also, and we are sincerely grateful for those of you who have supported our company throughout our many years of operation.

Sincerely,

Tim Kunz
Owner
